Attempted 2nd Degree Murder

A local man has been arrested following a shooting that took place Sunday, October 3, 2004 at the Martin Luther King Center. Police responded to 309 Cora Street, minutes before 6:00a.m. where a large fight occurred between several unidentified individuals. Preliminary information indicated a male suspect fired several rounds from a car striking a female. Witnesses identified the shooter as Damon Victor (22) of 314 Carver Street. On Wednesday, October 6, suspect Victor turned himself in to Investigators. The investigation is continuing with the Lafayette Police Department Criminal Investigation Division. Victor is being held at the Lafayette Parish Correctional Center on the above-mentioned charge.
